Index

AAA. See U.S. Foreign agricultural policy
Acheson, Dean, 135, 165
Adams, Sherman, 36–37
Adenauer, Konrad: on maintenance of U.S. troops in West Germany, 196; opposes merger of the EEC and EFTA, 185–86
Afghanistan, 198
AFL-CIO, 75
Agriculture Department, 35, 78–79, 191
Aldrich, Winthrop, 45
Alexander, Henry C., 136
Alliance for Progress, 209
Allyn, S. C., 136
American Bar Association, 92
American Farm Bureau Federation, 27–28
Americans for OTC, 118
Anderson, Dillon, 90
Anderson, Robert: background of, 144; on the balance-of-payments problem, 193–97, 209–10; on the benefits of foreign-business corporations, 158; on European foreign aid, 184; on funding for the IADB, 166; on funding for the IMF and IBRD, 160; on the IDA concept, 144; meets with Chancellor Konrad Adenauer, 196; on tying DLF loans to procurement of U.S. goods, 181
Anti-Dumping Act, 130
Antitrust laws, 81; congressional hearings on, 82–83; and the courts, 80, 82; the Eisenhower administration's policy on, 8, 80–85; and oil import restrictions, 89; and the oil industry, 9, 85–91; and the Randall Commission, 21, 82; and the Truman administration, 81–82. See also Restrictive business practices
Asia: and regional-development scheme, 161; U.S. economic aid program for, 53–56, 68–69
Atlantic community, 210
Atlantic partnership, 177, 182–88

Bailey, Cleveland M., 75
Balance-of-payments problem, 11, 153, 159, 176–80, 182, 192–96; effects of, on U.S. foreign economic program, 159, 177
Balance of trade, 176–77, 189
Baruch, Bernard, 63
Battle Act, 60–63
Benson, Ezra Taft, 27, 36, 45, 61, 79
Benton amendment, 81
Bicycle case, 45
Black, Eugene, 20, 47, 99, 144, 149
Blaine, James, 164
Boeschenstein, Harold, 104, 134, 155. See also Boeschenstein Report
Boeschenstein Report, 155–57
Boggs, Hale, 120, 157
Boggs Committee. See Reciprocal trade, special House committee on Bonbright, James, 40
Brandt, Karl, 191
Brandt, Willy, 1
Bretton Woods. See IBRD; IMF
Bridges, Styles, 202; on extension of for-

Bridges (continued)
eign trade, 42; introduces anti-Castro amendment, 205; opposes 1958 trade bill, 126
Brownell, Herbert, 84; and study of antitrust laws, 82–83
Bulganin, Nikolai, 59
Bureau of the Budget, 150
Business Advisory Council, 136
Butler, Richard, 16
Buy American Act, 20; clarification of, recommended, 34; the Defense Department's use of, 45; the Randall Commission's recommendations on, 22
Byrd, Harry, 127, 198

Castro, Fidel, 200
CED, 104, 136
CIA, 67
CFEP, 34, 101; and antitrust laws, 82; clash of, with the Justice Department, 83–84; and compromise over P.L. 480 program, 148; establishment of, 35–37; and formulation of foreign trade policy, 117; and international commodity agreements, 78–79; and the International Wheat Agreement, 79; proposes establishment of International Development Fund, 55–56; recommends establishment of Foreign Development Loan Corporation, 57; and regional-development schemes, 160–61. See also Randall Commission
Chrysler Corporation, 75
Churchill, Winston, 16
Coleman, John, 24
Coleman Committee, 24, 118
Columbo Plan, 52
Commerce Department: clash of, with the Justice Department, 83–84; dispute of, with the FOA, 36; and East-West trade, 63; opposes establishment of DLF, 102–3; opposition of, to international commodity agreements, 78–79; and promotion of private investment abroad, 46; response of, to the Randall Commission's recommendations, 23
Committee for a National Trade Policy. See Coleman Committee
Committee for International Economic Growth, 203
Committee of Industry, Agriculture, and Labor on Import-Export Policy. See Strackbein Committee
Committee on World Economic Practices. See Boeschenstein Report
Committee to Strengthen the Frontiers of Freedom, 204
Commodity agreements, 22
Common Market. See EEC
Conant, James B., 204
Congress: and the 1957 struggle over foreign aid, 110–11; votes in favor of U.S. membership in the IADB, 167; votes to increase funding of IBRD and IMF, 167
Cooley, Harold D., 148
Cooley amendment. See U.S. foreign agricultural policy
Cooper, Jere, 116, 118–19
Council on Foreign Economic Policy. See CFEP
Currency convertibility, 22, 178–79

Darden, Colgate W., Jr., 72
Davis, John H., 189–90
Defense Department, 193–95
de Gaulle, Charles, 177, 185, 188
Depression of 1958, 159
Deupress, Richard R., 72
Development Assistance Committee, 188
Dewey, Thomas, 135
Dillon, Douglas, 119–20, 124, 157, 184, 195; angers British, 188; assigned major responsibility for mutual security bill, 137; on establishment of an IDA, 144; explains U.S. position on OECD, 187–88; meets with Chancellor Konrad Adenauer, 196; named treasury secretary, 196; on need to avoid European split, 186; opposes U.S. membership in OEEC, 187; opposition of, to EFTA, 182; outlines 1958 mutual security request, 134; on reduction in overseas military expenditures, 193–94; on the Soviet economic offensive, 123; on tying DLF loans to procurement of U.S. goods, 181–82

Dirksen, Everett: issues minority report in support of MEEC, 88; on 1958 trade bill, 120; works out Senate–White House compromise on long-term financing of the DLF, 173
DLF, 11, 151; borrowing authority of, 168; congressional struggle over establishment of, 107–10; dispute over long-term financing of, 168–73, 175; IDA rejected as alternative to, 143–45; implementation of, 111; 1958 appropriation for, 134, 139–40; proposal for long-term financing of, 154; proposed by Eisenhower, 106; proposed by the IDAB, 98–99; rejection of supplemental appropriation for, 170; reorganization of, 111–12; support for, 101–2, 105; and tying of loans to procurement of U.S. goods, 180–82, 193
Dodge, Joseph, 14, 45, 49–50; background of, 36; and congressional opposition to 1956 mutual security program, 68; and investigation of foreign economic policy, 36–37; named chairman of the CFEP, 37; opposes special economic aid for Asia, 55; opposition of, to International Wheat Agreement, 79; and promotion of private investment abroad, 46; on relaxation of East-West trade restrictions, 61–63; resigns as chairman of the CFEP, 116; on the Soviet economic offensive, 67; on terminating the FOA, 52
Dollar gap, 3, 176; and the Randall Commission, 21
Douglas, James H., Jr., 194
Douglas, Lewis, 66
Douglas, Paul: and "freedom of navigation" resolution, 202; on 1958 trade bill, 127; opposes increased tariff on lead and zinc, 118
DPA, 81, 83. See also U.S. Foreign agricultural policy
Draper, William, 169
Draper Committee, 169
Dulles, John Foster, 7, 9, 17, 71, 119, 143, 146, 149, 164; displeasure of, with the Eisenhower administration's foreign economic policy, 51; fears loss of India to communism, 65; and fight over the Eximbank's lending policy, 30–32; helps organize citizens' group to support 1957 mutual security bill, 104; and importance of Japan to American security, 40; and 1955 trip to Asia, 54; on 1956 International Wheat Agreement, 79; and oil import restrictions, 89; opposition of, to establishment of SUNFED, 101; opposition of, to increased presidential power over tariff rates, 117; proposes establishment of IADB, 165; and Sinclair Weeks's recommendations on tariff legislation, 117; on Soviet economic activity in Third World countries, 65, 68, 122–23, 124; testimony of, in support of the DLF, 107; testimony of, on 1956 mutual security program, 68; testimony of, on 1957 mutual security bill, 104; testimony of, on 1958 mutual security bill, 136; on U.S. aid to Yugoslavia, 70; views of, on the Third World, 30

East-West trade: and the Battle Act, 60, 63; British views on trade with China, 62; congressional opposition to expansion of, 59, 62–63; pressures to relax restrictions on, 60–62; regulation of, 60; Soviets' efforts to expand, 59; U.S. controls on, softened, 60, 61, 130
ECA, 3–4
ECOSOC, 47; and study of restrictive business practices, 81
Eden, Anthony: and Anglo-American cooperation, 16; and U.S. controls on trade with Communist China, 62
Edgerton, Glen E., 31
EEC, 182, 191
EFTA, 182, 187–88
Eisenhower, Dwight D.: on Atlantic economic collaboration, 183; attitudes of, toward the Third World, 7, 9, 15, 103, 211; on the balance-of-payments problem, 178; and the Buy American Act, 45; calls for U.S. membership in the OECD, 186; and Churchill's Anglo-American partnership proposal, 16–17; on currency convertibility, 15; defends tying of DLF loans to procurement of U.S. goods, 181; dispute of, with George Humphrey over increased foreign aid, 103; and the Draper Committee, 169–70; on East-West trade, 59, 61–63; establishes National Advisory Committee on Inter-American Affairs, 165; establishes special committee to investigate crude-oil imports, 90; on establishment of the IFC, 46, 48; on executive reorganization, 17–18, 35–36; fears spread of communism to Mexico, 39; fiscal conservatism of, 14; increases funding of IMF and IBRD, 160; on international cooperation, 12–13; on Japan's bid for membership in GATT, 40; on Latin American economic development, 32, 165–66, 200; and the lead and zinc case, 39, 118–19; leadership qualities of, 7–9, 94, 209; on long-term financing for the DLF, 171–72; and NATO, 12–13, 182–83; and the oil cartel case, 85; on oil import quotas, 89; and P.L. 480, 28, 147–50, 190; on private investment abroad, 15, 30, 37, 46; proposes Near East development institution, 165; and the Randall Commission, 19, 24–25; on reduction in U.S. military costs in Europe, 194–95; on regional-development schemes, 161; relations of, with Congress, 8, 17, 105–6, 113–14, 140–41; relations of, with John F. Kennedy, 209–10; seeks foreign reaction to proposed IDA, 160; on the Soviet economic offensive, 66–68, 73, 123–24, 134; and the struggle over the Eximbank, 29, 31–33; supports establishment of an Asian economic fund, 55; supports establishment of the DLF, 103; supports establishment of the OTC, 116, 130; and the Swiss watch case, 38–39; on terminating the FOA, 52; on U.S. aid to Eastern Europe, 138; on U.S. aid to Yugoslavia, 70; and U.S. foreign agricultural policy, 8, 35, 77, 114; and U.S. foreign-aid policy, 10, 12, 14, 25, 54, 68, 71–72, 101, 104, 106, 108–10, 113, 133–41, 168–74, 197–200, 202–6; and U.S. foreign trade policy, 8, 10, 12, 14–15, 17, 25, 37, 39, 41, 43–44, 113, 117, 119, 122–23, 125–29; on U.S. membership in the OTC, 44, 74–76, 94, 113; views of, on communism, 9, 12, 13, 15–16, 66–67, 169, 199, 203

Eisenhower (continued)

Eisenhower, Milton, 18, 20, 32, 200; good-will trips of, to Central and South America, 165; recommends formation of National Advisory Committee on Inter-American Affairs, 200

Ellender, Allen, 180–81

Escape clause. See Reciprocal trade

European currency convertibility, 178–79

European reconstruction, 2–3

Eximbank: borrowing authority of, 168; and development lending, 56; early progress of, 4; and the Gray Report, 5; lending authority of, increased, 167; lending policy of, to Latin America, 32, 163; and promotion of foreign trade, 35, 189; struggle over reorganization of, 29–32

Export Control Act of 1947. See East-West trade, regulation of

Fairless, Benjamin, 72. See also Fairless Committee

Fairless Committee: 101–2; reexamination of U.S. foreign-aid program by, 72–73, 99, 101–2

FAO, 36

Feldman, Myer, 210

Firestone, Leonard, 204

Flanders, Ralph: opposes 1958 trade extension measure, 115; proposes study of reciprocal trade program, 127–28

Flemming, Arthur S., 38

FOA, 18; dispute of, with the Commerce Department, 36; establishment of, 36;

outlines rationale for special Asian fund, 54; promotes private U.S. investment abroad, 46; termination of, 52
"Food for Peace" program, 151, 189–90
Foreign-aid inquiries, 10–11, 71–73, 95–99; report of Senate Special Committee to Study the Foreign Aid Program, 104–5
Foreign-business corporations, 156–57; the Eisenhower administration's views on, 157–58
Foreign Investment Incentive Act. See Boggs, Hale
Foreign trade. See U.S. foreign trade
Francis, Clarence, 35. See also Francis Committee
Francis Committee, 76
FTC, 80–81
Fulbright, J. William, 105, 151, 181; criticizes U.S. foreign-aid program, 168; on establishment of the IFC, 48; proposes amendments to 1959 mutual security bill, 171; on the Reciprocal Trade Agreements Act, 26, 43

Galbreath, Edward, 72
Gardner, Richard, 121
Gates, Thomas S., Jr., 204
GATT, 1, 115–16, 186; congressional opposition to, 44; and foreign agriculture, 2, 190–92; recommendations on, by the Randall Commission, 22; renegotiation of, 34; revision of regulations of, 43–44; and tariff reductions, 4, 190–92; and trade discrimination against Japan, 39–41; as a substitute for the ITO, 2
Geneva Summit Conference of 1955, 9, 59, 63, 66
George, Walter: as chairman of Senate Foreign Relations Committee, 54–55; and the Eisenhower administration's reexamination of the U.S. foreign-aid program, 71–72; opposition of, to 1956 mutual security program, 68
Gordon, Lincoln, 19, 120–21
Gore, Albert: opposes increased tariff on lead and zinc, 118; on the Reciprocal Trade Agreements Act, 25–26, 43
Gray, Gordon, 90. See also Gray Report
Gray Report, 5–6
Green, Theodore, 71
Gruenther, Alfred, 14
Gulf Oil Corporation, 75

Haberler, Gottfried. See Haberler panel on Third World trade
Haberler panel on Third Word trade, 131–32
Hagerty, James C., 43
Halleck, Charles, 18, 126
Hard loans, 56–57, 168
Harlow, Bryce, 108
Harriman, Averell, 204
Hauge, Gabriel, 19, 24; on coordinating U.S. foreign economic policy, 37; on terminating the FOA, 52
Hayden, Carl, 145
Herod, William, 130
Herter, Christian, 134–35, 145, 195; concern of, about U.S. isolation on SUNFED question, 147; and the Eisenhower administration's position on East-West trade, 130; on establishment of the DLF, 111; and GATT tariff negotiations, 191; as head of National Advisory Committee on Inter-American Affairs, 165; on long-term DLF funding, 173; on 1957 mutual security bill, 109; on 1959 mutual security bill, 170; objects to P.L. 480 program, 149; opposes Western Hemisphere Conservation Conference, 163; seeks Weeks's recommendations on tariff legislation, 117; on social development fund for Latin America, 200; supports the IDA concept, 142
Hoffman, Paul, 17, 103
Hollister, John B., 107; appointed head of ICA, 52; testimony of, on 1956 mutual security program, 68
Holman, Eugene, 136
Hoover, Herbert, Jr., 61, 67, 79; heads committee on Asian economic policy, 53; heads effort to establish international oil consortium, 85

House Foreign Affairs Committee, study of U.S. foreign-aid program by, 98
Hughes, Emmet John, 8, 61
Humphrey, George M., 14; background of, 30; on balance-of-payments problem, 178; on coordination of U.S. foreign economic policy, 36; and cuts in military assistance requests, 106; on development lending, 30; dispute of, with Eisenhower over increased foreign aid, 103–4; and establishment of the IFC, 47–48; and the Eximbank's lending policy, 29–32; opposition of, to creation of SUNFED, 100–101; opposition of, to increased U.S. economic assistance abroad, 55; resignation of, 140; on terminating the FOA, 52; views of, on the Fairless Committee's report, 102
Humphrey, Hubert, 28

IADB, 154, 164–65, 166; and social development fund for Latin America, 177
IBRD, 1, 56, 154; establishment of, 2–3; on establishment of the IDA, 144; and the Gray Report, 5; quotas and capital for, 160, 167; slow beginnings of, 4, 159; support of, for the IFC concept, 47
ICA, 77; establishment of, 52; prepares study of Soviet economic activity in Third World countries, 67; supports flexible policy on international commodity agreements, 78–79
IDA: as an alternative to the DLF, 143–45, 153; American membership in, 209; establishment of, 114, 133, 141–45; and the Gray Report, 6
IDAB, study of U.S. foreign-aid program by, 95, 98–99, 102–3
IFC, 34, 56; establishment of, 46–49; and the Gray Report, 6
IMF, 1, 154; establishment of, 2–3; quotas and capital for, 160, 167; slow beginnings of, 4, 159–60
India, 69–70, 111, 138, 198
Indus River Basin project, 198, 201, 204
Interagency Committee on Agricultural Surplus Disposal, 35
International Advisory Board: on establishment of the IFC, 46–47. See also Rockefeller Report
International commodity agreements, U.S. opposition to, 78
International Wheat Agreement: controversy over, 77–80; the Randall Commission's opposition to, 77–78
Iran, and U.S. efforts to establish an oil consortium, 85–86
Iranian oil boycott, 81
Iraq, 139–40
ITO, 2

Jackson, C. D.: "new world economic policy" of, 49–51, 66, 104; and 1957 mutual security bill, 104; and 1960 foreign-aid bill, 203–4; on the Soviet economic offensive, 66
Japan, U.S. efforts to gain GATT membership for, 39–41
Jenkins, Thomas A., 42
Jenner, William E.: and 1958 trade bill, 127; on the President's Fund for Asian Economic Development, 55
Jiménez, Perez, 164
Johnson, D. Gale, 129
Johnson, Lyndon: and foreign-trade legislation, 42, 128; on long-term financing of the DLF, 173; and 1957 mutual security bill, 109; and 1958 mutual security bill, 140; and 1960 mutual security bill, 205
Johnston, Eric, 98, 133–34
Judd, Walter, 146
Justice Department: clashes of, with Commerce Department and CFEP, 83–84; and oil cartel case, 81, 85–86

Kalijarvi, Thorsten K., 92
Kaye, Danny, 135
Kefauver, Estes: criticizes attorney general's study of antitrust laws, 82; on foreign-trade legislation, 43; and Suez oil crisis of 1956–57, 86–87
Kennedy, John F.: names Douglas Dillon as treasury secretary, 196; and reciprocal-trade program, 210; relations of, with Eisenhower, 209–10

Kerr-Thurmond amendment, 127–29
Kestenbaum, Meyer, 20
Khan, Mohammed Ayub, 198
Khrushchev, Nikita, 9, 59, 122
Knowland, William: on 1956 mutual security program, 68; on 1958 mutual security bill, 137–38; on 1958 trade bill, 126; on the Soviet economic offensive, 135; on U.S. foreign aid for Yugoslavia and India, 70
Kubitschek, Juscelino, 164, 200

Labor Department, response of, to the Randall Commission's report, 23–24
Langer, William, 168
Latin America: Eximbank loans to, 32; and hemispheric-banking concept, 164–65; and NSC directive 5163, 162–63; regional-development scheme for, 153–54, 165; relations of, with the United States, 168; and Rio Conference of 1954, 48; social development fund for, 199–200; and the Soviet economic offensive, 162; U.S. aid to, 32, 161–62, 163–64. See also Eisenhower, Dwight D., on Latin American economic development; "Operation Pan America"
Leach, J. S., 85
Lead and zinc case, 38–39, 118–19
League of Women Voters, 75
Leffingwell, Russell, 178
Leffler, Ross, 163
Lewis, John L., 72
Lodge, Henry Cabot, Jr., 36; supports creation of SUNFED, 100
Long, Russell, 168
Luce, Henry, 204
Lynn, John C., 27

McClellan, John, 62
McClellan Committee, report of, on East-West trade, 63
McCloy, John, 47, 72
McDonald, David, 20–22
Macmillan, Harold, 185–86
Macy, Loring, 43
Macy, Robert, 84
Malenkov, Georgi, 59
Malone, George, 127
Mann, Thomas, 191
Mansfield, Mike: on budgeting defense support funds, 107; calls for Senate study of U.S. foreign-aid program, 72; on 1956 mutual security program, 68; on 1959 mutual security proposals, 171; supports the IDA concept, 143
Marshall Plan, 3, 176
Martin, Joseph, 75, 125
Mason, Edward S., 5
MEEC, 87–88
Mesta, Pearl, 135
Middle East: effect of Soviet economic offensive on U.S.–Mideast relations, 65; worsening Western position in, 101
Military expenditures, U.S., overseas, 192–96
Millikan, Max F., 110; influence of, on Eisenhower, 10; views of, on U.S. foreign economic assistance, 50. See also Millikan-Rostow study
Millikan-Rostow study, 96–99
Millikin, Eugene, 18; as member of the Randall Commission, 19, 21; opposition of, to the Randall Commission's recommendations, 24
Mills, Wilbur, 158; and Trade Agreements Extension Act of 1958, 125, 128
Monroney, Mike, 141–45
Moody, Sidney C., 75
Morse, True D., 61, 149, 191
Morse, Wayne: on 1957 mutual security bill, 107, 111; supports IADB, 167; supports IDA concept, 143
Mossadegh, Mohammed, 81
Multilateral aid, 153–54, 159–75, 177
Musial, Stan, 135
Mutual Defense Assistance Control Act. See East-West trade, and the Battle Act
Mutual security. See U.S. Foreign aid
Mutual Security Agency, 3

NAC, 18, 36
National Advisory Committee on Inter-American Affairs, 165, 200

National Association of Manufacturers, 92
National Conference on Foreign Aspects of U.S. National Security, 135
National Conference on International Trade Policy, 123–24
National Cotton Council, 28
National Farmers' Union, 27
National Grange, 27, 75
National security, and U.S. foreign economic policy, 9–10
NATO, and Atlantic economic collaboration, 182–83
Neal, Alfred, 20, 24
Nebolsine, George, 61–63
Neely, Matthew M., 89
Neutralist nations, and U.S. aid, 69–70
New York Bar Association, 75
NFTC, 48, 92
Nixon, Richard, 122, 135; and 1958 riot in Venezuela, 164
NSC, 83

ODM, 89
OECD, 186–88
OEEC, 52–53; and increased European aid to underdeveloped countries, 183–84
Oil cartel case, 81, 85–86
Oil imports, 43, 88–91
O'Mahoney, Joseph, 42
"Operation Pan America," 164
OTC, 9, 43–44, 74–76, 113–14, 130

Paarlberg, Don: on expansion of the UN technical assistance program, 146; on extension of the P.L. 480 program, 190; on U.S. balance of trade, 180
Pakistan, 69, 198
Parker, Cola, 19–20
Passman, Otto, opposition of, to U.S. foreign aid, 108–9, 139, 203–4
Pastore, John O., 42
Patman, Wright: criticizes attorney general's study of antitrust laws, 82; on establishment of the IFC, 48
Pella, Giuseppe, 183
Percy, Charles, 25
Peril-point clause. See Reciprocal trade
Pike, Thomas P., 38
P.L. 480 program: the Eisenhower administration's position on, 147–51, 189–90; origins of, 28–29; popularity of, in Congress, 150. See also Eisenhower, Dwight D., and P.L. 480
Pollis, R. G., 136
President's Fund for Asian Economic Development. See Asia, U.S. economic aid program for Private investment abroad: the Fairless Committee's recommendations on, 99; the Gray and Rockefeller reports on, 5–6; House Ways and Means Committee hearings on, 157; the Randall Commission's recommendations on, 21; tax incentives to encourage, 34, 46, 152, 154–59; Treasury Secretary Humphrey's views on, 30. See also Eisenhower, Dwight D., on private investment abroad; IFC, establishment of Proxmire, William E., 143–44
Public Advisory Board for Mutual Security, 16

Radcliffe, Harry S., 39
Randall, Clarence, 135, 188; background of, 19; as chairman of the Randall Commission, 20–21; as consultant to White House, 24, 34; on GATT policies on agricultural imports, 191–92; opposition of, to increased U.S. economic assistance abroad, 55; replaces Joseph Dodge as chairman of the CFEP, 116; on regional economic cooperation, 161; and review of Boeschenstein Report, 157; and Sinclair Weeks's recommendations on tariff legislation, 117; on terminating the FOA, 52. See also Randall Commission
Randall Commission: establishment of, 18–19; opposition of, to International Wheat Agreement, 77–78; purpose and course of, 19–22; reaction to report by, 22–25
Rayburn, Sam: and 1957 foreign-aid bill, 109; and 1958 foreign-aid bill, 139; and

1960 foreign-aid bill, 203; supports 1958 trade bill, 120, 124
Reciprocal trade: and the escape clause, 3, 42–43; extension of agreements on, 15–17, 25–26, 34, 41–43, 113–14, 115–20, 122–29, 210; origins of policy of, 3, 15; and the peril-point clause, 3, 42–43; the Randall Commission on, 21–23; special House committee on, 115, 120–22; and the Soviet economic offensive, 122–24. See also Bicycle case; Eisenhower, Dwight D., and U.S. foreign trade policy; Lead and zinc case; Swiss watch case; Trade-not-aid program; U.S. Foreign agricultural policy
Reed, Daniel, as member of the Randall Commission, 19–21; and 1954 reciprocal trade bill, 25; and 1958 trade bill, 125
Reed, Philip D., 136
Regional-development proposals, 160–61
Reid, Whitelaw, 72
Restrictive business practices, UN proposal on, 91–93
Reuss, Henry S., 167
Richards, James P., 54–55
Richter, J. H., 191
Riddleberger, James, 201
Roberts, Ralph, 146
Rockefeller, Nelson, 36. See also Rockefeller Report
Rockefeller Report, 5–6
Rostow, Walt, 110; influence of, on Eisenhower, 10; and regionalism in foreign aid, 209; supports P.L. 480 program, 150; views of, on U.S. foreign economic assistance, 49–50; See also Millikan-Rostow study
Royal Dutch Shell, 85
Rubbotom, Roy, Jr., 164
Russell, Richard: opposition of, to 1956 mutual security program, 68; opposition of, to U.S. foreign economic aid, 105

Saltonstall, Leverett: on long-term financing for the DLF, 172; on 1960 foreign-aid bill, 203; supports anti-Castro amendment, 205
Segni, Antonio, 183
Senate Judiciary Committee: hearings of, on the Suez oil crisis, 87–88; on oil import quotas, 90
Sheen, Archbishop Fulton J., 135
Shishkin, Boris, 20
Simpson, Richard M., 42, 116; as member of the Randall Commission, 19–21; and 1958 trade bill, 125–26
Smathers, George, 164
Smith, Dan, 157
Smith, H. Alexander, 110, 137
Smith, Lawrence, 71
Smith, Marshall M., 46
Smith, Walter Bedell, 72
Smoot-Hawley Tariff, 15
Soft loans, 56–57, 168
Soviet economic offensive, 58–59, 63–65, 68, 72, 119, 155, 201; effect of, on U.S. foreign trade policy, 122–24; in Latin America, 162; reaction of Third World nations to, 64–65; U.S. response to, 59–60, 63, 67, 70, 73, 134–35. See also Eisenhower, Dwight D., on the Soviet economic offensive
Soviet Union: and Third World nations, 48; U.S. perceptions of military threat from, 58. See also Soviet economic offensive
Spain, 69
Staley, Eugene, 23
Stans, Maurice, 195
Stassen, Harold, 30; and changes in the Battle Act, 60, 62; as director of the FOA, 51–54; on Soviet economic activity in the Third World, 65
State Department: and oil cartel case, 85–86; on reduction in overseas military expenditures, 193–95; supports establishment of IDA, 114; supports flexible policy on international commodity agreements, 78–79; supports IDAB report on foreign aid, 102; on tying DLF loans to procurement of U.S. goods, 181

Stevenson, Adlai, 135
Strackbein, O. R., 24
Strackbein Committee, 24
Straus, Ralph I., 156
Straus Report, 156
Strauss, Lewis, 157
Suez oil crisis, 87–88
SUNFED: the IDA as an alternative to, 142; U.S. opposition to establishment of, 100, 114, 133, 145–47, 153
Swiss watch case, 38–39
Symington, Stuart, 62

Taft, Robert, 13, 18
Tapp, Jesse W., 72
Tax incentives. See Private investment abroad
Teetor, Lothar, 38
Third World nations, 115; economic development of, 47–48, 176; growing assertiveness of, 210–11; and GATT, 44; obstacles to trade with, 131; pressure for increased long-term development funding for, 101; reaction of, to defeat of SUNFED proposal, 146–47; reevaluation of U.S. relations with, 35, 49; and the Soviet economic offensive, 64–65
Thye amendment, 81
Timberg, Sigmund, supports UN proposal on restrictive business practices, 92–93
Time, 50
Timken decision, 80
Trade Agreements Act. See Reciprocal trade
Trade-not-aid program, 12–16, 33, 49–57, 208
Trade Policy Committee. See Weeks, Sinclair
Treasury Department: on establishment of UN special projects fund, 146; opposition of, to international commodity agreements, 78–79; response of, to the Randall Commission's recommendations, 23; supports establishment of the IDA, 114; on tying DLF loans to procurement of U.S. goods, 181
Truman, Harry S., 81–82, 85, 135–36
Tydings, Millard E., 38

UN Commission on International Commodity Agreements. See International commodity agreements, U.S. opposition to UNCTAD, 132, 211
UN technical assistance program, 145–46
U.S. Chamber of Commerce, 92
U.S. Council of the International Chambers of Commerce, 118
U.S. foreign agricultural policy: and the AAA, 26–27; and barter proposal, 148; and the Cooley amendment, 148, 152; and the DPA, 26–27; and East-West trade, 61, 77; the Eisenhower administration's refusal to allow international discussion of, 76; and import restrictions, 27; opposition to, within the Eisenhower administration, 76, 147–50; and promotion of agricultural exports, 27–28, 76–77, 189–92; proposed alignment of, with other economic programs, 34; the Randall Commission's recommendations on, 22, 26; and reciprocal trade, 26, 129–30. See also P.L. 480
U.S. foreign aid: to Eastern Europe, 138; effect of Korean War on, 3; forms of, 56; the Gray and Rockefeller reports on, 5–6; military nature of, 58; Millikan and Rostow's study on, 50, 96–99; and the Mutual Security Act of 1951, 3; and the Mutual Security Act of 1953, 29; and the Mutual Security Act of 1955, 54–56, 66; and the Mutual Security Act of 1956, 67–71; and the Mutual Security Act of 1957, 104–10, 113–14; and the Mutual Security Act of 1958, 133–41; and the Mutual Security Act of 1959, 167–75; and the Mutual Security Act of 1960, 197–206; and the Randall Commission's report, 21; and reorganization of aid agencies, 18; and the Soviet economic offensive, 134. See also Eisenhower, Dwight D., and U.S. foreign-aid policy; Trade-not-aid program
U.S. foreign economic policy, 34, 115; after World War II, 1; review of, 18–19

U.S. foreign trade: promotion of, 35, 189. See also Reciprocal trade

Venezuela, 1958 riot in, and increased U.S. aid to Latin America, 164
Vernon, Raymond, 93–94
Von Klemperer, Alfred H., 179

Watson, Thomas J., Jr., 76
Waugh, Samuel, 164
Webb-Pomerene Act, 80–81
Weeks, Sinclair, 115–16, 124, 128–30, 136; background of, 116; on East-West trade, 63; and 1958 trade bill, 119; and reciprocal-trade legislation, 116–17; on the Soviet economic offensive, 123
Western Hemisphere Conservation Conference, 163
Western Hemisphere Trade Corporation Act, 158
White, Francis, 149
Wiley, Alexander, 137
Wilkinson, Lawrence, 20
Williams, John H., 62
Wilson, Charles, 61
World Bank. See IBRD
Wormser, Felix, 87–88

Yugoslavia, 69–70